Deprecates War Scare.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—From the state department and the Japanese embassy came swift and conclusive denial today of the accuracy of the statement cabled from The Hague to the London Telegraph and printed in this country, to the effect that Japan had made a categorical demand upon the United States for satisfaction in connection with the treatment of Japanese at San Francisco and has served notice of her intention to deal with California herself if the national government fails to do so.

The state department said that the American public is fully aware of all exchanges that have taken place on the subject, that there has been no correspondence of recent date and that there are no negotiations between the two governments. This statement was confirmed at the Japanese embassy, where it was positively stated that Ambassador Aoki is not going to Japan in the fall, as reported in a Japanese newspaper.

Diplomats Not Windbags
The ambassador declared that the Japanese diplomats are a fully trained body of men and are not going around talking indifferently.

The statement that the mission of Director Ishii of the commercial bureau of the Japanese foreign office was necessitated by the ambassador's unsatisfactory conditions in the United States, was called to Mr. Aoki's attention. He denied the report with great deliberation and said that no complaints had been received at the embassy of the character indicated.

The ambassador confirmed that Miyama, counselor of the embassy, said yesterday that the director's coming trip to the United States is to be taken because he had a vacation and wanted to visit the United States. The embassy, Aoki said, had not received information of his contemplated visit. The ambassador's acquaintance with Mr. Ishii dates back to a very long time, when the latter served the former in the capacity of secretary. The ambassador then told him that he ought to visit the United States, that it would be very interesting and that there were things here showing the industrial development of the United States which Japan ought to know. Ishii, the ambassador thought, will possibly go to Vancouver, Seattle and San Francisco.

Deny Daily Stories
The Japanese ambassador and staff deprecate the recent newspaper publications as inaccurate and misleading about the relations between the United States and Japan and have patiently denied daily stories calculated to unfavorably affect the friendly relations of the two countries.

The story of the ambassador's return to his country is regarded as another example of carelessness and inconsiderate publication. Aoki, when his attention was called to the latter report, said:

"I have not been summoned to Tokyo and I say no intention of going. I want to say as I have said time and again that there is no 'situation.' There are no 'strained relations' between the United States and Japan. As I said before, all of this talk of such a condition of affairs is newspaper talk."

Aoki declined to discuss the matters pending between the two governments, but said The Hague story was too ridiculous to talk about.

NEW YORK, July 10.—Admiral Baron Yamamoto, one of Japan's distinguished naval officers, is the guest of New York. The admiral and suite arrived from England on the steamer Carmania and will remain until July 15. The admiral's first day in New York was a busy one. He was interviewed by half a hundred reporters, had his photograph taken a score of times, received visits from Major General Frederick B. Grant, Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, Captain J. D. Adams, acting commandant of the New York navy yard, and a number of other military and naval men, took a long automobile ride and dined with members of his party.

In an interview the admiral deprecated the war scare.

NEW YORK, July 10.—"I think that the friendly relations of long standing between the United States and Japan should be preserved and the passing storm disappear in the waters of the Pacific ocean. I firmly believe that this one incident cannot be thrown into the way of the pleasant relations between the two countries which began at the time of my birth."

Thus spoke Admiral Baron Yamamoto, Japanese director of marine during the Japanese-Russian war, as a greeting to the American people today on his arrival here with his suite on board the steamship Carmania. The admiral has been inspecting the gun shops and navy yards of Europe and while here will visit our navy yard and shipbuilding plants. He was met at quarantine by Lieutenant R. W. Henderson, representing Rear Admiral Goodrich, commandant of the New York navy yard, who extended Admiral Goodrich's greetings.

Yamamoto made the occasion of his arrival an opportunity to deny the reports from Tokyo that the leadership of the progressive government party would fall upon him upon his return home and that efforts will be made to overthrow the Saionji ministry.

SCHMITZ AGAIN
IS DENIED BAILLawyer Narrowly Escapes Going to Jail for Insulting
Judge Dunne

By Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 10.—Attorneys for Mayor Schmitz appeared before Judge Dunne this morning and renewed application for bail ending an appeal to the higher court. The judge refused the application and a warm colloquy ensued in which Charles H. Fairall, one of Schmitz's attorneys, narrowly escaped being sent to jail for contempt. He made retort to the court that "the judge intended to deny the application anyway," and Judge Dunne informed him that a repetition of such offense would lead to his being sent to prison.

Judge Dunne directed the district attorney that if application should be made in any other department court he should oppose it as a species of fraud.

ance of Federation as De-

Simpkins Hired Attorney.

By Associated Press.

BOISE, Idaho, July 10.—Charles H. Moyer went on the stand today as a witness for Haywood, and besides making positive denial of all crimes attributed to him and other Federation leaders by Orchard, offered an explanation unsolicited for the appearance of the Western Federation as the defender of Orchard immediately after the arrest at Caldwell for the murder of Steunenberg.

Moyer swore that it was Jack Simpkins who engaged Fred Miller at Spokane to go to Caldwell and represent Orchard, then known as Hogan, and that it was at the request of Simpkins that the witness and Haywood subsequently advanced $1,500 from the funds of the Federation to meet the expense of defending Orchard.

Defense Pleaded

Moyer made a self-possessed witness and at the end of a long day the defense expressed satisfaction over both his testimony and the probable impression it made on the jurors. He made a good appearance and his low pitched voice was of pleasing tone. He displayed some nervousness when he first faced the court, but the examination had not proceeded far before he seemed quite at ease.

Moyer will resume the stand tomorrow morning, when the state begins its cross examination. His direct testimony took a very wide latitude and the way is open for an equally wide cross examination. Borah was the state's questioner.

BREAK DEADLOCK
IN METAL MARKETCalumet & Hecla Takes Lead
and Phelps Dodge Follows
Soon After

Special to the Silver Belt.

BOSTON, Mass., July 10.—The three-cent break in copper to 23 cents a pound for Lake followed the initiative of the Calumet & Hecla, which company broke the long deadlock between producer and consumer by selling several million pounds of copper at that price, largely for European shipment.

The Phelps Dodge interests were quick to follow the Calumet & Hecla's lead. The United Metals Selling company did not break the present price until late yesterday. Since the break in prices it is estimated that Calumet & Hecla has sold 12,000,000 pounds, Phelps Dodge, 3,000,000 and the United Metals Selling company, 20,000,000 pounds.

Producers state emphatically that they do not anticipate any further reduction in prices in the near future and predict that prices are likely to advance in the fourth quarter of the year.

The copper stocks unexpectedly broke on the price reduction, although the present level of quotations is warranted by an eighteen-cent copper market. The break in the New York market had probably more to do with the decline in copper stocks than the break in the metal. The earnings of the copper companies will not be greatly affected by the reduced price for copper.

TEN THOUSAND AT
C. E. CONVENTIONDr. Clark Re-elected President of United Society Christian Endeavor

By Associated Press.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 10.—In the presence of ten thousand delegates assembled within the hearing of his voice, Dr. Francis E. Clark, president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, tonight called the twenty-third annual international convention to order. A chorus of 1,000 voices swelled the welcoming ode. The convention was called to order in the presence of the governor of the state, United States senators and representatives, city county and state officers and a distinguished gathering of clergy and laity from the four corners of the earth seated in the tent in which the meeting was held.

There were delegates from Alaska two full-blooded Indians, a large delegation from Japan, delegates from the Dark Continent and every European country. Preceding the meeting the corporation officers and trustees met for the transaction of business. Belated trains delayed the meeting and it was after 4 o'clock when it was called to order. Dr. Clark of Boston was unanimously re-elected president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor; Hiram N. Lathrop of Boston, treasurer; George D. Graft of Boston, clerk of the corporation, and Fred H. Kitter of Boston, auditor, a position newly created by the board.

SCHOOL FIGURES
OF GILA COUNTYCensus Shows Heavy Increase
Over Last Year—New School Bonds Sold

County Superintendent of Schools W.

O. Kellner has made his annual report to Superintendent of Public Instruction R. L. Long, and the figures compiled by the county superintendent show a splendid condition of Gila county's school affairs. There is a marked increase in the number of school children, especially in the city of Globe, where the present facilities will be increased by the erection of two new school buildings by the time the fall term begins. The bonds amounting to $40,000, which will provide the funds for the new buildings were purchased Tuesday by the First National bank at a figure slightly above par, the only bid received.

The following interesting figures are from Superintendent Kellner's report: School districts, 22. Globe teachers 12, 4 grammar, 8 primary.

Enrolled boys 420; girls 466—886. Average daily attendance, 527. Enrolled in all districts, 1,475. Average attendance, 841. Salaries of teachers, Globe, $9,860. Salaries of teachers, all districts, $19,476.25. Total expenditures, Globe, $12,913.74. Total expenditures, all districts, $25,802.47. Total receipts including balance on July 1, 1906, Globe, $16,114.35. Balance on hand June 30, 1907, $3,200.61. Total receipts and 1906 balance, all districts, $40,453.42. Total balances June 30, 1907, all districts, $14,650.95.

School Census for 1907
Globe boys 501; girls 580—colored 7; total 1,028.
In county, boys 883; girls 879; total, 1,762.
Census 1906—Globe, boys 410; girls 483; colored 5; total 898.
In county, boys 691; girls 731; total 1,422.

HEADS ASSOCIATIONArizona Educators Are Honored, One Being Selected
Vice President and Another
Director for Arizona.

By Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 10.—The National Educational Association concluded today the important executive work of its sessions by electing Edwin G. Cooley, superintendent of the Chicago schools, as president of the association, together with other officers, including treasurer, eleven vice presidents, a board of directors of one from each state and territory, and adopted by a unanimous vote the new charter and by-laws provided by an act of congress. There was no opposition, with a single exception, of the program outlined last Monday. Miss Elizabeth Shirley, a teacher of the Los Angeles schools, formerly of Omaha, made a spirited speech before the convention in opposition to the proposed charter, which she claimed placed all the funds of the association in the hands of a board of trustees and paved the way for possible misuse of them.

Roasts Leaders

Miss Shirley's language was a bitter reference to some leaders of the association, whom she did not name, but whom she charged collusion with the schoolbook trust. Miss Shirley was completely outvoted in the convention. Tonight her charges are the talk of the members and it is not unlikely that some developments of a more or less interesting nature may ensue. In interviews she promised sensational disclosures, but so far her assertions have remained unsupported.

Tomorrow the directors will select the next convention city. Most of those in attendance are associate members only, as is shown by the attendance at the meeting today for active members only, which was attended by about three hundred.

The association voted today to appoint a committee of three members to work for a national university to be established by the federal government at Washington. Congress will be petitioned to establish such an institution. Among the officers elected were J. F. Stillwell of Phoenix, Ariz., fifth vice president, and A. J. Matthews of Tempe as director for Arizona.

WORKMEN BURIED
UNDER CONCRETESix Killed in Collapse of Building in Philadelphia and
Many Injured

By Associated Press.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 10.—Six workmen are believed to have been killed by the collapse of Bridgeman Brothers' building on Washington avenue, below Fifteenth street, this afternoon. One body, that of John Marshall, has been taken from the debris and at least five others are in the ruins.

At the time of the collapse about twenty-five men were at work on the structure. The building was a reinforced concrete structure, and when the east wall began to crumble many workmen jumped and escaped with their lives. A number of others were carried down beneath the hundred tons of concrete and if they were not instantly killed it is believed they cannot survive their injuries until rescuers reach them.

Scores of men are at work endeavoring to reach the unfortunate men, but the work is necessarily slow because of the immense weight of the debris which must be removed.

Concrete girders are piled as high as the second story of the structure. Bridgeman Brothers are manufacturers of steam fitters' supplies and were constructing an addition to their factory.

COPPER HILL TO PULL CITY TEAMGreat Tug of War Match at Dreamland Saturday Night
—Dance to Follow

Arrangements were made last night at the Dominion hotel for a tug of war contest between the Copper Hill team and a team for Globe. Several days ago the Copper Hill boys posted a forfeit of $100 to pull any team of equal weight in the city and the challenge was accepted and the forfeit covered by William Ryan. Last evening representatives of both teams met and agreed to have the match pulled off at Dreamland Saturday night and it will be followed by a grand ball.

There was some dispute over allowing Tony Trojanovich to pull with the city team, as the Copper Hill boys wanted him barred, but it was finally decided to allow him to pull in the anchor of the city team, provided that the entire weight of the city team did not exceed that of the Copper Hill team. The match will be for an $800 purse and the gate receipts, which will be divided up by the contesting teams, 60 per cent to the winners and 40 per cent to the losers.

The following will be the lineup of the two teams:

Copper Hill—E. E. Myers, anchor; C. Strohl, A. Stottard, J. Gibson, D. Benson and E. G. Olson; total weight, 1,030.

City team—Tony Trojanovich, anchor; Floyd Blevins, J. J. Moloney, Ira Lindsey, Joe Ryan and Tom McKeever; total weight, 1,020.

The contest will begin at 9 o'clock sharp and only a captain and a substitute for each team in addition to the referee will be allowed on the mats. Charles Gorenson, foreman at the Copper Hill, will be the referee.

The admission fee will be 75 cents and the dance occurs immediately after the tug. It is expected that the event will be one of the most exciting ever pulled off in the city and much money will be wagered on the outcome. So far the favorite in the betting is the city team, owing to the well known prowess on the mats of the anchor, Mr. Trojanovich.

BOXTON ON STAND
IN GLASS TRIALActing Mayor Follows Outline
by Heney—Delmas Heads
Off Testimony

By Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 10.—Very little was accomplished today in the trial of Glass. Heney made the opening statement to the jury for the prosecution, which outlined the steps by which the state expects to prove that the vice president of the Pacific States Telephone company paid Supervisor Charles Boxton, now temporary mayor, $5,000, a bribe to vote against the Home Telephone company's application for a rival franchise. Then Boxton was called to the stand. Though he is the star witness for the state, his inquisition today was so skillfully and frequently interrupted by Attorney Delmas of the defense that when he gave way temporarily to Clerk Ryan of the board of supervisors, nothing of vital importance had been elicited.

The examination of Ryan, who has served the board of supervisors since 1883, was directed by the prosecution to establishing the identity of the application submitted by the Home company, and he was momentarily interrupted by Delmas, whose views of what Heney might not ask under the law were at variance with the assistant district attorney's. The minutes of the board were under examination for introduction in proof of the making of the application and the subsequent awarding of the franchise to the Home company when the afternoon session adjourned.

It is thought that Boxton will tomorrow on the witness stand tell the story of his own disgrace.

BALDWIN SWINGS
EARLY TOMORROWNegro Murderer Stands the Ordeal of Waiting Well and Is Losing No Sleep.MAY BECOME CATHOLIC
BEFORE HIS EXECUTIONPoses for a Photograph to Be Sent to Relatives in South—
Still Has Hope of Interference by the Governor.

Special to the Silver Belt.

SOLOMONVILLE, Ariz., July 10.—William Baldwin, the murderer condemned to die next Friday morning, is bearing the ordeal of waiting very well. He sleeps soundly and his appetite appears to be normal. Occasionally he is induced to a little merriment by the antics and capers of his fellow prisoners, but his smile is rather wan, and it is plain that the approaching tragedy is weighing upon him.

Since his incarceration in jail Baldwin has professed religion and expresses the belief that he will be saved. There being no Protestant minister here at this time, Rev. J. Camet, the Catholic priest, has visited the condemned man and it is quite likely that he will be baptized into the Catholic faith before the fatal day. The priest visits the cell two or three times a day and it is evident that he is giving the wretched man considerable consolation.

Preparations for the execution are going steadily forward. Sheriff Anderson has issued about 250 invitations and the affair will be witnessed by a good sized crowd. The old gallows which have done duty on several similar occasions, will be propped up and made serviceable.

So far Baldwin has shown no inclination to confess his guilt and it is evident that if a confession is made it will be deferred to the last moment.

Still Has Hope

While he realizes now that nothing short of a miracle can defer his execution, still, as with every condemned man, there is the slightest glimmer of hope. Soon after the sentence was passed he sent telegrams to several persons, including a lawyer at Tucson who it appears is taking some interest in the case. The replies he has received are not in the least hopeful. Whether any effort is being made to secure a continuance from Governor Kibbey does not appear to be known here. It is possible that his colored friends at Tucson may be urging some official action, and of course a brief respite is not an impossibility.

The man is now kept under close guard day and night and the sheriff is taking no chance of either escape or suicide. Baldwin is not a vicious negro and gives the officials no trouble whatever. It is not probable that he would escape from a pine cell if left unguarded.

Wednesday morning he sent for a photographer and posed for his picture. He desires to present his mother and other relatives in Alabama with his photograph as a final remembrance.

A NEW PICTURE OF H. H. ROGERS.

It is the habit of the American people to consider John D. Rockefeller the head and front of the Standard Oil monopoly, but H. H. Rogers, it is understood, is the real power now active in the management of the enormous trust. This is a new picture of Mr. Rogers. He is vice president of the Standard Oil company. Fairhaven, Mass., likes Mr. Rogers more than the general reading public likes him, because that is his native town, and he has presented to it many gifts, such as a town hall, a public library and a school building.

CONGRESSMAN ELECT FRANK M. NYE.

At the next session of congress Frank M. Nye, a brother of the late Bill Nye, humorist, will take his seat from a Minnesota district. Congressman Nye bears a marked resemblance to his brother, but is more gifted in the matter of hair. He has no reputation as a humorist, and it is believed that Congressman J. Adam Bede, his colleague, will continue to hold the honors in that respect. Mr. Nye is a lawyer.
